Daniel Kauffman

June 20, 1865 to January 6, 1944

By John L. Horst

Associate Editor of Gospel Herald

PHOTOGRAPH BY D. S. HARNLY, JR.

DANIEL KAUFFMAN was the seventh of a family of ten children born to Bishop David D. and Elizabeth Winey Kauffman of Richfield, Juniata County, Pennsylvania. When he was but nine months old, the family moved to Elkhart County, Indiana, and three years later they went westward to Morgan County, Missouri, and settled in the vicinity of Versailles. Here Bro. Kauffman received his common-school education and then took a normal course in the Missouri State University, graduating with the degree of "Principal of Pedagogics." At the age of eighteen he began to teach school and continued in this profession for fourteen years (1883-97).

Although Daniel grew up in a Mennonite bishop's home, it was not until he was twenty-five years old that he became a Christian. Bro. J. S. Coffman was called to Morgan County to hold a series of meetings, and he labored in the community for three weeks, day and night. Bro. M. S. Steiner in his book on the "Life and Labors of John S. Coffman" thus tells the story of the conversion of Daniel Kauffman:

"There was a young man—the bishop's son—a schoolteacher, gifted and talented, who had taken to politics, in whom Coffman and the church were especially interested. He was teaching school at the time, and also making stump speeches in his race for the clerkship of the circuit court, and with good prospects for success at the polls. He attended the meeting when not engaged in 'stumping.' Coffman visited his school one day seemingly taking an interest in his school and pupils, but all the while sizing up the prospects of winning the young man for Christ. The young man saw this and was made to think upon his way. His interest in politics waned as his interest in his own salvation increased. The meetings were about to close, but the young man manifested no outward signs of yielding. Invitations were extended, prayers offered, hope renewed with mingled fear, the last meeting was closing, the last invitation extended, and the last hymn and the last verse of that hymn was being sung—and Daniel Kauffman stood up for Christ."

He united with the Mt. Zion Mennonite Church near Versailles in November, 1890. The church was quick to make use of the talents with which he was endowed and chose and ordained him to the ministry in October, 1892. Four years later, in September, 1896, he was ordained as bishop. Soon afterward he discontinued teaching school and gave his time more fully to the work of the church. For over fifty-one years he served in the ministry of the Mennonite Church and was a faithful preacher of the Word of God.

Bro. Kauffman soon developed into an aggressive and forceful preacher and evangelist. He followed in the trail of Daniel Brenneman, John F. Funk, and J. S. Coffman and became one of the most widely used and successful evangelists in the Mennonite Church. It was about this time that the Bible Conference movement started in the Mennonite Church and he was much in demand as a Bible teacher and instructor. In 1898 the Mennonite General Conference was organized with Bro. Kauffman as its first moderator. This was the beginning of a long career as a church statesman, in which he served often as moderator of conferences, chairman of committees, and counselor and conciliator in cases of difficulty in congregations and conferences.

Bro. Kauffman also showed an aptitude for writing early in his Christian career, as is shown by the numerous articles from his pen which appeared in the "Herald of Truth." He soon felt the need of literature, especially books, which would set forth Bible doctrines as held and practiced by the Mennonite Church. There were no such books in existence when he came into the church. Greatly impressed with this need, he began writing books himself, and the first one to come from his pen was "A Manual of Bible Doctrines," which made its appearance in May, 1898. It was so well received that a second edition was printed before the end of the year. This was followed by "One Hundred Lessons in Bible Study," in 1899, and "A Talk with Church Members" in 1900. Bro. Kauffman had now launched on a career that was to put him at the head of the list of Mennonite authors.

In April, 1905 the publication of a new church paper, called the "Gospel Witness," was begun at Scottdale, Pennsylvania. Bro. Kauffman had been previously appointed editor, and when he began this field of work, he entered an era in his life in which he was to make his greatest contribution to the church. Three years later the "Gospel Witness" was merged with the "Herald of Truth," and then under the direction of the Mennonite Publication Board, the "Gospel Herald" became the official organ of the Mennonite Church. Serving as editor in chief of the church paper for nearly thirty-six years Bro. Kauffman wielded an influence over the thinking and polity and life of the church that was probably unequaled by any other person. His training as a schoolteacher and experience as a churchman, coupled with his logical mind and ability as a writer, gave him just the qualities that were needed as a successful editor of a church paper.

Although probably his greatest contribution to the church was his editorship of the official church organ, he continued to give considerable time to other writing. He wrote numerous books and booklets, either alone or in collaboration with others. Two of his greatest works were the "Book of Doctrines of the Bible" a book of 639 pages of which he wrote the greater part, and the "Mennonite Cyclopedic Dictionary," a book of 443 pages of small print, which he planned and edited throughout, as well as writing much of it himself.

During all this time he gave much time to general and district church work, helping in all kinds of conference and committee work. He served as moderator of district conferences and was four times moderator of General Conference. At one time he was a member of twenty-two committees and boards.

Bro. Kauffman was indeed a versatile man. He was a successful teacher, preacher, editor, and churchman. We may wonder how one man could be all these and how he could perform so many services in one lifetime. One of the speakers at his funeral made this significant statement: "Bro. Kauffman did what he did because of what he was." Bro. Kauffman was a man of unusual talents and abilities. But he was above all a man of God. When He gave himself up to Christ, he surrendered all. His was a life wholly yielded to God and loyal to the church of Jesus Christ. He was a man with great capacity for work, and he devoted this capacity to the work for the Lord. He was much concerned for the cause of the Lord, but not interested in advancing his own interests. He was humble and unselfish. He was a man who took life seriously and worked while he had the time and opportunity. He was firm in his convictions, but considerate of the opinions of others. He had the qualities of calmness and deliberation which made him a good chairman and moderator.

Bro. Kauffman's achievements are all the more remarkable because he was subject to periodic attacks of illness which often incapacitated him for work, and which a few times brought him near the point of death. He also suffered two serious accidents during his lifetime. When a young man he was thrown from, and dragged by, a horse, resulting in a broken leg, and leaving him to go through life with one leg shorter than the other. His second accident occurred in May, 1941, when the automobile in which he was riding ran down a steep embankment. This resulted in serious back injuries which came near causing his death.

Bro. Kauffman was twice married. His first marriage, to Ota J. Bowlin in 1887, was terminated when his wife died in 1890, leaving him with a twenty-month-old boy to take care of. This had a tremendously sobering effect upon him and helped him toward making his decision for Christ. In 1902 he was married to Mary C. Shank. Six children were born to this union, only three of whom grew to maturity. Bro. Kauffman was a kind and considerate husband and father and he was a great lover of home. His brief tract, entitled, "When Home Is Heaven," is one of his finest productions.

The Lord gave Daniel Kauffman to the church at the time when he was needed. He gave more than a half a century of unstinting service to the church of his choice. He kept up his activities to the last and preached an inspiring sermon a few days before his death. He is now resting from his labors, but his works follow on through his influence and his writings. He is now enjoying the rich reward of the faithful.

Bishop Abraham Overholt Histand

By J. C. Clemens

ABRAHAM OVERHOLT HISTAND, son of the late Samuel Histand and Rebecca Overholt Histand, was born in Doylestown Township, Doylestown, Pennsylvania, February 10, 1869; died August 9, 1943. He attended the elementary schools of Bucks County, continuing his education until the age of nineteen. During the latter part of this period, he attended only a few months in the winter. He was raised on a farm in Bucks County and followed that vocation with his ministry through life. He was called to the ministry at the age of twenty-seven at Doylestown, Pennsylvania. At this period of the church most of the services were conducted in the German language. Bro. Histand speaking ably in English was used largely throughout the conference district in regular and special services; the young people especially welcomed his services for that reason. On April 11, 1922, he was ordained to the office of Bishop in the Bucks County district, superseding the labors of Peter Loux. In this capacity he was active in promoting progressive steps in the Church; Bible conferences and evangelistic efforts were first sponsored by him in the Franconia district as early as 1909. He was an ardent advocate of the Eastern Mennonite Home as well as the recent Convalescent Home.

Outstanding in the life of Bro. Histand was his activity in visitation work; necessarily many sacrifices were made of both time and money to carry on this part of his ministry. According to his own record these visits and calls among his people in his district numbered over three hundred per year; besides this work in the home district he made a number of trips visiting other conference districts; the data shows over a period of forty-four years he contacted many of the churches in the States and Canada. He made a number of trips to Knoxville, Tennessee, and Louisiana Mission fields; he always kept an accurate record of his experiences, names of churches, church leaders and laity. This afforded him a wide acquaintance in the church he was serving so faithfully and helped him to solve church problems intelligently.

The Lord gave him a healthy physical body so that from childhood until the day before his death he had not spent a day in bed on account of sickness. To him and his companion, who preceded him in death by only nine months, were born twelve children, three sons and nine daughters all members of the Church and surviving his departure. Several of them are engaged in mission work and one son, Nelson, is ordained and stationed at Culp, Arkansas.

His contribution to the Church over a period of forty-four years can hardly be estimated. Over seven hundred souls were received into church fellowship by water baptism in his official duties as bishop. Many marriage ceremonies were performed by him both before and after he took up his bishop work. His policy was always to be on time and have an experience of good cheer. Therefore he is greatly missed.

Bro. Histand believed and practiced the laying on of hands in healing the sick. Mark 16:18. Bro. Abram G. Gross, a fellow minister for over thirty years, gives the following testimony of Bro. Histand's faith and practice in the anointing of oil: "Having sat behind the same pulpit with Bro. Histand for a period of thirty-three years, I learned to know him as a man of strong convictions. He was a strong advocate of the ordinance of anointing with oil. It was my privilege to be present at quite a number of anointings. One anointing took place at a hospital one afternoon. One of the family thought after the anointing that the mother would have to be placed upon the operating table, but Bro. Histand did not give his consent. The next morning she was greatly improved and is yet a living witness to God's healing power. He also anointed Bro. J. D. Mininger who was spared for a number of years for useful service in the Lord's vineyard."

His last official work for the church was to visit a few sick folks. According to a few statements he made then he had a premonition of his coming departure. The "Well done," spoken by our Saviour is our assurance and comfort; he left the Church in a growing condition and so he could bid adieu and go to his rest.

Mennonite General Conference

By Milo Kauffman, Former Moderator

THE BIENNIUM that has just passed has been one filled with problems, responsibilities, and opportunities. Late in 1941 came the memorable Pearl Harbor attack, and with it the declaration of war against the Axis. Even prior to this the Burke-Wadsworth Bill became a law, and the conscription machinery was set up. What effect was this to have upon the Mennonite way of life? Our forefathers had left Europe to escape military training, and to find a home where they could serve their God according to their own consciences. Now compulsory military training is set up in our own land.

We are fortunate that our Peace Problems Committee was on the alert. Working with the other peace churches they had written into the conscription bill considerations for the conscientious objector. They had pamphlets printed, articles written, and in that way kept the church informed. In consultation with the Executive Committee of General Conference, they arranged for two different meetings of conference district officials and representative leaders of the Mennonite Church to decide upon the courses to be taken in this crisis. These meetings proved helpful in forming policies and deciding the direction that should be taken.

Other committees of General Conference also were busy during the two years, faithfully performing the tasks that were assigned to them. The Committee on Industrial Relations gave helpful assistance and advice to various groups and persons. This committee, working with the Executive Committee, planned and called a meeting of church leaders to discuss some of the problems that at this time are vital to the life of the church.

Due to restricted travel the biennial meeting of General Conference was limited to ministers and delegates. Conference convened Aug. 19 to Aug. 24. The evening sessions were of an inspirational nature; Friday and Monday evenings were open to the public.

The program committee had planned a full program of subjects full of interest, and assigned speakers capable of handling them. The program proved to be too full by the time all reports were given, all subjects treated, and time given for open discussion. The last meeting ran over time, even though many of the delegates and ministers had left.

It was truly encouraging to see the interest manifested in the work and the standards of the church. There were few, if any dull moments during the entire conference. Often there were some clashes of opinion, but nearly always in the spirit of charity and forbearance.

Perhaps the cause of the greatest difference of opinion and the warmest debate was the report and recommendations of the General Problems Committee. This committee had worked hard and wanted to present something quite specific to General Conference—something that would help stem the worldward drift. All agreed that there was a drift, and that as a church we want to be separate from the world. The point of difference was the method to be used in accomplishing the desired results. Some felt that progress is being made, and that the best results will be realized if no drastic action is taken that may now divide the church. Others felt that rather drastic action must be taken now to save the church from a schism later.

Time did not permit the working out of a plan that would meet general approval. To have decided the issue by a vote with the Conference quite evenly divided would have been a mistake. The wiser course was taken, and the matter tabled to be taken up later at a meeting to be called by the new Executive Committee.

A capable Executive Committee was selected of which Bishop Allen Erb of La Junta is the Moderator. Many prayers are ascending in behalf of this committee, for many problems will arise during the next two years.

It is hoped that the way will open during this biennium for extensive relief work, and for the progress of missions. The Mennonite Church is ready to respond in a large way to the challenge of relief and mission work as the way opens. May the Lord give wisdom to the leaders of General Conference.

Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities

By J. N. Kaufman, President

THE EMERGENCIES due to the present conflict continue to bring difficult problems to the Mission Board. Many of these problems have been a major concern as the weeks and months went by. The Board acknowledges with deep gratitude to God His definite leading in the consideration of these problems.

The work in the Argentine is growing. Not only are new converts being added to the church and new churches are being organized but the spirituality of the membership is growing and the leadership of the mature Christians is asserting itself.

Due to the growing needs of the growing Mennonite Church in the Argentine, a fund has been created to provide for these needs. These include an Old People's Home, a more adequate printery for the dissemination of Christian literature, suitable accommodations for Institutes for our young people, agriculture land for the purpose of helping converts from the Indians, church buildings, and so on. It is little more than a quarter of a century since the founding of the work in the Argentine hence this special fund is known as the Twenty-fifth Anniversary Fund. An estimate of one thousand dollars for each year of the operation of the Mission will bring the total to twenty-five thousand dollars for this fund. In view of the needs as mentioned above this will hardly suffice. We believe that many of the brethren at home will be glad to help in this important enterprise and the brotherhood is asked to contribute this amount, say, within the next twelve months.

Sister Edna Good, of Waterloo, Ont., who had been previously appointed to the South American field, sailed the latter part of the year. When she arrives on the field the total number of missionaries in the Argentine will be twenty-seven.

Our work in India is seriously affected by the World War. In normal times it is necessary for missionaries to spend a period of time at home on furlough. It is still more necessary in times such as these when added strains complicate the strenuous work of the missionaries. By accepting such accommodations as are available, and by travelling over long and tedious detours, it is possible for missionaries to come home on furlough. However, the problem of returning to India after the furlough is another matter. The sending of women and children is "out" for the duration. Women doctors and nurses can still be sent provided a strong case is presented to the authorities. Thus it is that we have three or four missionary families at home who are ready to return to India but who are unable to obtain the necessary passports. We are glad to state that arrangements are proceeding satisfactorily for Dr. and Sister G. D. Troyer to return to India. They plan to sail early in the new year.

Those workers still on the field have increased duties and responsibilities. Several of them are not in the best of health. Several main stations are without resident missionaries. This lamentable condition is somewhat modified because of the opportunity it provides for the "drafting" of Indian Christian leaders. Truly in India, as well as in South America, the Lord is using the Christian nationals in the furtherance of His cause.

Speaking of India, we have a further problem to face. All signs point to the possibility of a new governmental set-up after the war. In all likelihood India will have full dominion status just as soon after the war as the two great Indian communities—Hindus and Mohammedans—can agree on a form of government which will be workable and fair to all, including the minority groups. We need not be surprised if in such circumstances Indian authorities will have rather much to say in connection with the Christian propaganda as carried on by foreigners. And what they will say may very seriously affect the present form of missionary effort. If past expressions and attitudes are indications of what may take place in the future, we may be reasonably certain that missionary doctors, nurses, educational specialists, and agriculture workers will be welcome in India. Whether or not this is a correct forecast, it is our serious belief that we should now look out for men and women full of the Holy Ghost, who are first and foremost consecrated Christian witnesses, who have high scholastic attainments as well as successful practical experience, who will be "missionaries-in-waiting," ready to sail at the first opportunity. Such men and women will be very busy in important work at home—so busy, in fact, that they cannot be spared! Yet the church at home will commission them to represent her in the work of evangelization across the seas. Such missionaries, once on the field, will be so necessary to the spiritual welfare of India's millions that even a strictly national and independent government will welcome their ministry. Allowing for differences in government this conclusion will apply in large part to South America as well.

There is suffering and distress in the world today on a wide scale. Due to present conditions efforts to relieve this suffering are greatly restricted and what relief work is done is effected through other agencies, principally the Mennonite Central Committee. So willing are our people to do their share in the work of relief that, without special publicity, funds are coming into the treasurer's office. Our relief fund balance is growing. And well it might. When the war comes to a close and the church is able to proceed with her relief program, the Mission Board will assume direct charge of relief. So great will be the needs then that a large reserve should be built up now—a reserve of several hundred thousand dollars —for the opportunity when it comes.

Bro. J. D. Graber has been sent by the Mission Board to make careful investigations in that war-stricken country, China. If his report is favorable, and the Lord so continues to lead, the Board will open relief work in that country as soon as the door is open. Bro. Graber is also authorized by the Mission Board to investigate the possibility of opening permanent mission work either as a result of the relief work or independently of it. May God lead very definitely in the investigations.

While we are planning for relief work on a large scale after the war, while we are making a survey of China looking towards permanent mission work, we need to keep in mind the fact that there is plenty to do at home. There are Chinese in many of our cities at home. San Francisco, for instance, has a very large Chinese population, a considerable number of whom are not evangelized. Bro. and Sister George Beare are at home on furlough awaiting the opportunity to return to India as soon as the way opens. In the meantime the Board has asked Bro. Beare to make a survey of the Chinese situation in San Francisco with the view of opening mission work among them if the Lord so directs.

Our attention has been called to an interesting people in the little island of Jamaica in the West Indies. Our joint committee (Executive and Missions) has given some consideration to Jamaica as a possible mission field at the time of the Virginia meeting, and again later in the Executive Committee, which has authorized investigations in Jamaica and Puerto Rico for later report and consideration.

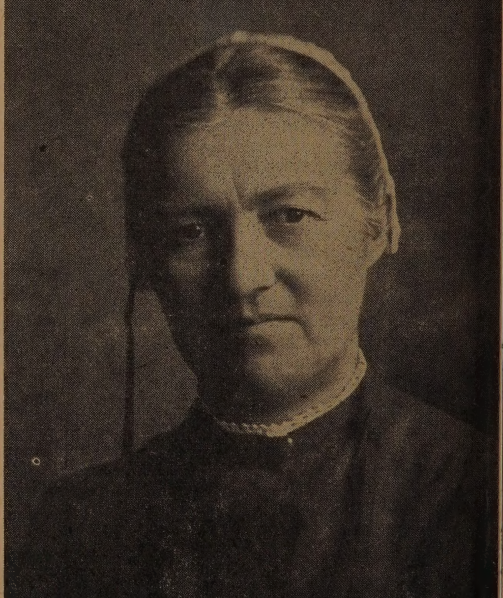
During the year the Mission Board has continued its special study of the hospital situation as a growing need of the church. Many brethren have felt for some time that there is need for a hospital more centrally located in addition to the successful work now being done at La Junta. The last annual meeting has organized a special hospital study committee consisting of the Executive Committee, the Mission Committee and four additional brethren. This committee, through its own appointed subcommittee, has been making investigations during the year. This is a difficult problem and the Board requests special prayer for its guidance as it continues this study.

This year the Mission Board has lost its oldest missionary, Sister Sarah Lapp, who passed to her eternal reward on Oct. 25. Sister Lapp, widow of Bro. M. C. Lapp, entered the India field in 1901 and remained a missionary under the Board until her death, a record of the longest foreign missionary service in the history of the church.

Our city and rural missions at home continue doing splendid work for the Kingdom. They never have an easy task even in the best of times. At the present time their work is becoming more and more difficult due to our position on the military question. Such teaching is unwelcome and unpopular these days. However, they are forging ahead with the great evangel, in some cases reaching into new fields and thus extending the borders of the work. Our Charitable Homes are filled to capacity. We need to stand by these mission and charitable workers with our means and with our prayers.

The work is encouraging. We need only lift up our eyes and behold the field which is white already to harvest. Is there any one whom the Lord has called into the work? Let him say with Isaiah, "Here am I; send me."

Peoria, Ill.



Sister Sarah Lapp, who passed to her reward on October 25, 1943, entered the India field in 1901 and remained a missionary under the Board until her death.. She has attained the record of having the longest foreign missionary service in the history of the church.

Relief Work in 1943

By Irvin B. Horst, Publicity Director of Peace Section

DECEMBER, 1943, marks the close of the fourth year of the present program of War Sufferers' Relief. Begun in December, 1939, with the sending of M. C. Lehman to Poland, the program has since spread to France, England, India, and Puerto Rico. Throughout the past year the relief program was continued in England and Paraguay. In France our work was curtailed. A new project was opened in Puerto Rico. Commissioners were sent to the Middle East and to China to study proposed areas for relief work.

On Sept. 1, C. L. Graber was called to the Akron office to serve as Director of the Relief Section of the expanding program. P. H. Unruh, Vice Chairman of the M.C.C. Executive Committee, passed away in July of the past year, and H. A. Fast was called upon to fill the unexpired term.

England

The M.C.C. in the past year had opportunity to continue an extensive program of War Sufferers' Relief in England. In London the clothing depot in charge of John E. Coffman distributed clothing to needy war sufferers. Frequently the clothing was distributed through hostels for evacuee children and through societies providing for needy families.

Peter Dyck was able to open a convalescent home near Birmingham for sick and crippled evacuee boys, known as "Taxal Edge." Elfreda Klassen served as a nurse at "South Meadows," an evacuee nursery in North Wales. Edna Hunsperger made her contribution as a nurse among the aged and infirm folks in "The Woodlands," a home at Wolverhampton.

Help was also brought to several refugee children groups. At Plymouth, Spanish refugee children were succored. Relief was brought to children from the Channel Islands in North England, and to Belgian refugee children in Wales. Bibles and testaments were distributed. Individual cases of misfortune were given personal consideration and help.

In August, Ernest Bennett, M.C.C. commissioner, was sent to England to survey the work there as a basis for future planning of relief work in England.

Paraguay

M.C.C. during the past year continued to bring relief and encouragement to the Mennonite colonists in the Chaco. Vernon Schmidt supervised the construction of a badly needed road for the Menno and Fernheim colonies in order that markets for their produce might be more easily reached. Dr. John Schmidt returned to the States after one year and three months of service. During this period he performed a number of surgical operations, treated over 1400 cases of trachoma and established a program of sanitary measures to forestall a threatened infestation of hookworm.

A. E. Janzen and Robert Geigley were sent to Paraguay in January. Bro. Janzen has returned after six months of service in which time he brought a spiritual ministry, promoted the Bible school and printing establishment and assisted in arranging for the liquidation of the colony debt. Robert Geigley has remained to assist with various legal and economic problems.

In September of the past year Dr. Schmidt returned to Paraguay with his nurse-wife for another period of service. Accompanying him were Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Klassen with equipment to meet the dental needs of the colonists. Additional workers recently appointed to go to Paraguay early in 1944, are Willard Smith and wife and Sara Histand.

France

Our workers in France, Henry Buller and wife and Lois Gunden, have been interned with the American diplomatic corps at Baden Baden, Germany. Before the occupation of France the workers arranged for the continuance of the canteen in Lyon by organizing native personnel to operate with remaining M.C.C. funds. No doubt a limited amount of work was done throughout the past year.

Puerto Rico

Relief work in Puerto Rico was started in June of the past year by the opening of a C.P.S. camp on the island. Wilbur Nachtigall was asked to assume leadership of the unit at La Plata which is a subunit of the Martin G. Brumbaugh Reconstruction Unit, a project begun by the Church of the Brethren. Eight workers including Dr. and Mrs. Preheim, a doctor and nurse, have been sent to the island to begin the work. As a result of the visit of O. O. Miller to the island in September, it was decided to expand the project by the addition of eleven more workers.

India

The Mennonite Relief Committee in India continued its service to refugees in India as the need arose. More recently it has been called upon to investigate and decide upon a program of relief in Bengal and other sections of the country where a severe famine has broken out. M.C.C. is in the process of sending funds and selecting two workers to bring relief to this stricken area.

Middle East and China

The continuance of the war and the apparent immensity of the need for relief following the cessation of hostilities calls for advance planning and preparation. To be ready to enter the doors as they open, M.C.C. sent out three relief commissioners during the past year. In May, Dr. C. Richard Yoder and Delvin Kirchhofer were sent to the Middle East to survey and study the need of refugees in that area. In July, Sam Goering accompanied by J. D. Graber as a representative of the Mennonite Relief Committee were sent to China in the interest of relief and mission work.

Clothing for Relief

The clothing depot at Ephrata in charge of Mrs. M. C. Lehman, continued to sort and prepare relief clothing for shipment throughout the past year. To supplement the three already existing cutting rooms, an additional one was opened at Bluffton, Ohio. From Nov. 1, 1942, to Nov. 1, 1943, over 55,000 pounds of clothing were received at the clothing depot. In the course of the past year, 5½ tons of relief clothing were shipped to war sufferers in England and North Africa, valued at $11,321.32. Approximately 1½ tons were also sent to Paraguay, valued at $2,996.45. All of these shipments arrived safely and were distributed to needy persons.

Expenditures

Relief expenditures from Dec. 1, 1942 to Sept. 30, 1943, including clothing, amounted to $86,839.85. To England went $42,875.90; to India, $14,232.83; to Paraguay, $12,834.22; to North Africa, $8,146.23; to Middle East, $4,817.64; to China, $3,302.03; and to France, $611. These figures include donations in clothing and funds from Mennonite groups in Canada.

As the war continues and draws to a close, the need for relief will become stupendous. M.C.C. is endeavoring to serve in areas wherever there is need, and it feels it can conduct a program of relief in accord with the Mennonite testimony. It must be kept in mind, however, that any program of relief will be determined by the uncertain outcomes of the war. With the continued co-operation of the constituent groups, M.C.C. will continue to bring a testimony in this time of international distress.

Mennonite Civilian Public Service in 1943 and the Work of the Peace Problems Committee

By H. S. Bender, Chairman, Peace Problems Committee

THE YEAR 1943 brought few changes in the Civilian Public Service work, but it was a year of substantial and gratifying achievement. The entire church was united in support of the program, and by God's grace those in charge were enabled to bring the year to a successful conclusion in spite of unforeseen difficulties and some acknowledged shortcomings. A brief summary of salient facts based upon the annual report of the Mennonite Central Committee which operates the C.P.S. program will no doubt be of much interest to all.

I. Distribution of C.P.S. Camps and Men January 1, 1944

A. Base Camps, 17 (Dec. 1, 1943), 1,932 men. (The number of men in each camp is given in parentheses). Grottoes (166) and Luray (170), Va.; Hagerstown, Md. (103); Sideling Hill, Pa. (126); Medaryville, Ind. (64); Denison, Iowa (118); Hill City, S.D. (117); Colorado Springs, Colo. (112); Fort Collins, Colo. (143); Downey, Idaho (67); Terry (140), and Belton, Mont. Lapine, Oregon, has since been closed and the men distributed to other camps.

B. Mental Hospitals, 21 (January 1, 1944), 748 men. Staunton, Va. (35); Farnhurst, Del. (35); Marlboro (65), and Greystone Park (95), N.J.; Norristown (95), Harrisburg (35), Allentown (25), and Wernersville (25), Pa.; Lima (11), and Macedonia (20), Ohio; Denver, Colo. (15); Provo (25), and American Fork (15), Utah; Howard (60), and Lafayette (15), R.I.; Mt. Pleasant, Iowa (25); Ypsilanti (75), and Kalamazoo (25), Mich.; Winnebago (15), and Union Grove (25), Wis.; Vineland, N.J. (12).

C. Dairy Farm Service (December 1, 1943), 283 men. In twelve counties in the states of Wisconsin, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Colorado, and California.

E. Agricultural Experiment Stations, 35 men. At Lincoln, Nebr.; Orono, Maine.

F. Smoke Jumpers at Missoula, Mont., 20 men. (Forest Fire Fighters Parachute Unit).

G. Puerto Rico Unit, 10 men.

H. U.S. Government camp at Mancos, Colo., 22 men. Only men who wish to leave church camps are accepted here.

II. Number of Men by Denominations

Out of a total of almost 7,000 men in C.P.S., nearly 3,000 are in Mennonite camps. Of this number over 2,500 are Mennonites, and 1,125 belong to our own branch.

The exact number of men in C.P.S. on December 1, 1943, from each Mennonite branch was as follows: Mennonite church, 1126; General Conference Mennonites, 501; Old Order Amish, 285; Mennonite Brethren, 174; Church of God in Christ (Menn.), 106; Conservative Amish, 81; Brethren in Christ, 77; Old Order Mennonite, 37; Central Conference, 40; Krimmer Mennonite Brethren, 28; Evangelical Mennonite Brethren, 24; Defenceless Mennonite, 14; Hutterian Brethren, 11. The ratio of members to C.P.S. men in our branch was 1 to 45. This is about the average for all Mennonites.

A total of 369 non-Mennonite men were under Mennonite administration, of whom 64 Methodists constitute the largest single group. A total of 54 denominations were represented, of whom 24 had only one man in each camp.

III. Financial Expenses and Support

Of the 2,900 men under M.C.C. administration approximately 1,100 are working in projects outside of camp where they receive full support and a small allowance for clothes and pocket money. The remainder, 1,800, are fully supported by the M.C.C. at a cost which continues to be less than $25 per man per month.

The total cost of C.P.S. operations for the year ending Dec. 1, 1943, was roughly $700,000, or an average of about $58,000 monthly. Total receipts for C.P.S. during the year amounted to $736,000, of which $665,000 came from the quota contributions of the co-operating Mennonite branches. Our branch contributed $296,000 of this amount. Non-Mennonite men contributed almost $40,000 toward their own support in 1943.

An analysis of the operating costs of C.P.S. for 1943 reveals that although food costs have gone up, the cost per man per month has slightly decreased. This man-month cost has been: overhead, $6.10; in camp units, $18.01; in special projects, $2.34. Men in camp have cost therefore $24.11 per month, and all others $8.44 per month. This is very economical administration.

The support quota per member per month has remained at 50 cents, or $6.00 for the year. This low figure could be maintained in spite of the increase in drafted men because of the increasing number who were assigned to detached service and therefore were removed from camp expense accounts. There is every reason to believe that the monthly quota will be kept at 50 cents per member throughout the coming year.

IV. Administration

The Mennonite Central Committee administration of the C.P.S. program continued with little change in 1943. Toward the end of the year the following changes were made: H. A. Fast resigned as general director of camps, and John Mosemann resigned as assistant general director; Albert Gaeddert continued as assistant general director with Orie Miller assuming the work of general director; J. N. Byler was appointed as director of hospital units. The following serve as regional directors of camps: Phil Frey, east of Ohio; R. L. Hartzler, Middle West; Harry Martens, Rocky Mountain area; Rufus Franz, Pacific Coast.

All male administrative staff positions in the C.P.S. camps and detached service units below regional directors are now filled by assignees, except one camp director. Thirteen assignees serve in the M.C.C. headquarters office at Akron, Pa., and three others in regional director offices.

V. Religious and Educational Program

Earnest endeavors were made during the year to strengthen the religious programs in the camps, particularly since increasingly fewer camp directors were preachers, and the men in detached service had little opportunity for united worship. This is still one of the major problems.

The Peace Problems Committee provided a camp spiritual visitation ministry to all of our members in C.P.S. by means of four bishops, who served as camp visitors. Those serving were John E. Lapp, Amos Horst, D. A. Yoder, and H. A. Diener. This work is to be continued and enlarged during the year 1944.

The C.P.S. educational program was strengthened by sending to the camps traveling speakers, largely from Mennonite church schools, and by providing a relief training school at Goshen College in the summer of 1943 where about 65 C.P.S. men and 15 women were given a 9 weeks' course. The plan to send C.P.S. men into foreign service was dropped because of congressional action prohibiting such service except in U.S. territory. However, a small amount of relief training is now being carried on in several mental hospital units.

VI. General Conference Concern

The church at large, while largely satisfied with the C.P.S. program as it has been carried on, is rightly deeply concerned for the spiritual welfare of our men in C.P.S. Expressing this concern, the 1943 Mennonite General Conference adopted a series of policy recommendations which we hope will serve to strengthen the program and improve it. These are reported in full in the General Conference minutes.

VII. C. P. S. Rehabilitation

The long continuance of the war and of C.P.S. increase the need of many C.P.S. men for aid in returning to normal life upon discharge from C.P.S. The Mennonite Central Committee is studying this problem and is preparing plans to help. The direct service to our own members will no doubt be administered by an organization set up for this purpose by our own branch, encouraged by the Peace Problems Committee, but not directly under its management.

Much other interesting and important information concerning C.P.S. could be added here, but space does not permit. May the church continue to be grateful to God for the privileges and blessings of C.P.S. and may she continue to support the work in prayer, counsel, and finances as needed.

VIII. War Problems

The demands of total war upon the citizens of the nation (U.S.A. and Canada alike) continue to place nonresistant Christians under test. The church has met the test of C.P.S. in general squarely and successfully. The record of our testing in war bonds, war work, and war spirit is also good, but could be improved. Civilian Defense is no longer an issue. But the outcome of the most important test of all, that of actual, direct participation in war through service in the armed forces is not good. A study made by the Peace Problems Committee shows that during the first year of war (1942) about 30 percent of all drafted men entered the armed forces, of whom half took noncombatant service. The record the second year (1943) was much worse with about 50 per cent entering the armed forces, and three-fourths of these taking combatant service. The total will probably show 40 per cent in the army at the end of the war. This reveals a serious weakness and is a challenge to a more vigorous and effective teaching program in the future.

A welcome aid in the teaching of our peace principles was the 68 page booklet Must Christians Fight by Edward Yoder, published in 1943 by the Mennonite Central Committee. It seeks to answer the chief arguments brought against our position by professed orthodox Christian teachers.

The Peace Section of the Mennonite Central Committee has continued to serve the cooperating groups with advice and counsel on war problems.

The Peace Problems Committee of General Conference has continued to be the servant of the church on all matters relating to peace, war, and nonresistance. Because of the importance of its work, the 1943 General Conference enlarged the U.S. section of this committee to twelve members. This group in turn organized itself as follows:

Executive Committee: H. S. Bender, chairman; O. O. Miller, Secretary; C. L. Graber, treasurer; Amos Horst, Milo Kauffman.

Sub-Committee on C.P.S. Pastoral Ministry: Amos Horst, chairman; John E. Lapp, O. N. Johns, D. A. Yoder, H. A. Diener.

Sub-Committee on C.P.S. Policy Study and Recommendations: Milo Kauffman, chairman; J L. Stauffer, H. S. Bender, Simon Gingerich, J. A. Heiser. Goshen, Ind.

Mennonite Board of Education

The Work of the Past Year and The Work Ahead

By C. F. Yake, Secretary

I. The Past Year

IT WILL BE POSSIBLE to present only the tangible things and to refer only to the concrete as the visible results of the labors of the past year through the Mennonite Board of Education in her colleges, Goshen and Hesston. The intangible results, which in the last analysis are the most important and enduring, cannot be so forcibly presented because it is impossible to lay hands upon them or see them as we do the natural and the material. We refer particularly to the building of Christian character and training young people for vocational service as well as for specific service in the church and her various agencies for promoting the kingdom of God. Without a doubt these results are the most important, and these results are the most far-reaching, and these are the results in which the Church is primarily interested.

The Board of Education naturally seeks the achievement of these character and spiritual-life goals in the students which come under the influence of her colleges, for the Board realizes that the church will be strengthened, her work enlarged, and her testimonies become more widely known in a war-torn world. The concrete and the material are used merely as a means to this primary end. Without teachers and officials, campuses, dormitories, college halls and administration buildings, and all kinds of equipment, all of which are quite largely dependant upon a sufficient amount of capital (resources for operation and administration) it would be impossible to operate schools and produce Christian character through instruction and guidance of the young people who attend these educational institutions. But, important as the material things are, the spiritual are primary, and these are difficult to measure.

Just how much Christian character has been built in the somewhat less than six hundred young people attending these two colleges, God alone could measure. But the processes by which this character was produced in varying degrees in the students which attended, have been functioning quite efficiently. We are happy, indeed, to be able to testify that our schools have grown institutionally as well as in the emphases on spiritual training in the process of character building. In spite of the difficulties encountered, and in spite of the problem which a pleasure-loving world thrusts upon us both in our church and in our schools, there has been an increased emphasis on spiritual nuture and on developing a positive Mennonite Church testimony which radiates in word and in influence from the lives of the students. We are glad for this fact. To our mind this is the greatest accomplishment during the past year.

The next greatest accomplishment lies in the realm of the material, particularly fiscal affairs of the Board. The debt reduction program which the Board inaugurated last February a year ago, and which was promoted for a period of approximately eighteen months, was completed during the year. A total of $105,000, which had been set as a goal, has been reached and liberal donations beyond $105,000 have been received. This makes it possible for the Board to liquidate the debts of the past, and also to liquidate the holdings of the Mennonite Finance Corporation. It will be merely a process of transfer, and the amount of time necessary for such transfer, until Coffman Hall and the Health Center will be the actual property of the Board of Education, and the deeds will be in their possession. While naturally we are grateful to everyone who contributed to this debt reduction program, and particularly to those who successfully administered it, we bow in humble gratitude to the almighty Father who providentially blessed this work and made it possible. By these concerted efforts Goshen and Hesston colleges become the property of the Mennonite Church through her agent, the Mennonite Board of Education, and they become her property without any encumbrances.

Since the completion of the major work of this debt reduction program, it was thought wise to promote a financial program which would provide for a new heating plant needed at Goshen College. The progress made toward the goal set has been commendable, and those who have so faithfully labored in it need our appreciation, as well as those who have contributed toward this need. It is hoped that by the time of the 1944 Board meeting in February the goal will have been reached. Again, we are deeply grateful to a kind heavenly Father for blessing our work.

A third major blessing is the continued favorable standing of Goshen College in the North Central Association of Colleges. Goshen has a good rating in the Association, and its rating is constantly being improved. To the Franconia Conference District credit needs to be given for contributions from numerous individuals to make it possible to purchase $1,000 worth of new books for the library. This purchase was essential to the maintenance of a high N.C.A. rating.

The Board of Education is taking an active interest in meeting the high-school problem which is confronting our church. Through the Executive Committee of the Board a study is being made at the present so as to ascertain accurate facts concerning the need of establishing Mennonite high schools in various sections of the Board's constituency. The present emergency has brought the church face to face with high-school educational problems such as not heretofore encountered. The indoctrination of her young people is essential, and this should be particularly emphasized during the high-school age. Work is being done which we hope will materialize into something definitely concrete.

A number of faculty changes have come about because of temporary transfers to Civilian Public Service or because of sabbatical leaves. Several new teachers have been added at Hesston College, and more are needed there with the increased enrollment of students. A severe loss is being suffered at Goshen College through Bro. Paul Erb's acceptance of the editorship of the Gospel Herald. This leaves the College English Department without a head, although Bro. Erb's services do not terminate until satisfactory arrangements can be made for someone to take his place. Your prayers are invited.

Increased effort has been put forth by the Executive Committee to have all the colleges function more definitely for the church which owns them. A study of the problems confronting our colleges and an effort to stem the serious inroads which the world has been making upon our young people in their nonconformity testimony, has required a considerable amount of time during the past year. At this time of writing special meetings with the faculties of Hesston College and Goshen College are planned for so that there may be a closer co-operation between the Board and the faculties of our colleges, and that there may be a better understanding of the problems of the Board and of the colleges. A sharing of responsibilities which falls upon the Board and the college faculties is essential to the successful promotion of the work of the church in our schools.

II. The Work Ahead

Materially, both Hesston and Goshen colleges need constant support. Even though it will be easier to operate on a balanced budget, numerous improvements will be necessary from time to time. Goshen College needs an auditorium, and it is hoped that in the near future this goal may be attained. A fund has already been established for the erection of this auditorium if and when a sufficient amount of money has been secured. Hesston's growing student body may require additional housing quarters. The heating plant at Goshen College will be installed if and when the needed material can be most profitably secured after the present emergency. It has been thought wise to wait and have an efficient plant, rather than to be in haste and be compelled to erect a plant with possibly inferior materials and a high cost.

Educationally our institutions are to be improved so that our young people will always be given the best. The N.C.A. rating of Goshen College needs to be maintained and increased so that its testimony may be as effective as possible.

More important than any of these things is the task ahead of making our schools more particularly and definitely a service to the church. Our nonresistant testimony has received a large amount of impetus during the recent years, but worldliness has made serious inroads upon us. The effect of this worldliness is felt among our student groups on the college campuses. To increase the efficiency of the college service to the church in maintaining her nonconformity testimony is a task which the Board faces and which is the most important task ahead; and to accomplish this requires patience, persistence, prayerful labor done expediently and judiciously. It is hoped that regular meetings between the faculties and the Executive Committee may take place yearly, and that thus a closer working relationship may be established between the Board and the colleges. Thus we hope to attain a spiritual goal not yet reached.

The service of the young people to the church and to the world is enhanced by increased spirituality among the students and by the increased positive testimony which they give for Christ and the church. It is this goal which we constantly face and for which we need to strive. The prayerful support of every member of the church in every way possible is solicited. Church School Day which has now been made an annual occasion should be the time when in every congregation of our church special effort will be put forth to make our people conscious of the great responsibility which lies upon them to help make the church schools more efficient. The various opportunities of support which come to the church should be mentioned so that our people as a whole will become church-school minded, because thus the testimony of the church to the world will be enhanced. We want our church schools to become banner-bearers for the church.

Mennonite Commission for Christian Education and Young People's Work

By John R. Mumaw, Field Secretary

THE COMMISSION for Christian Education and Young People's Work has enjoyed great blessings from the Lord during the past year. This organization has found an increasingly stronger bond of fellowship with district and local organizations in the mutual interests of promoting the teaching work of the church. It is with gratitude that we have found such a splendid spirit of co-operation in the cause and task which have been assigned to this organization.

Sunday Schools

The preparation and writing of lessons for the nursery and kindergarten children in Sunday school have continued through the year. It is hoped that, before another year's report is written, these will be available to our constituency. The Commission hopes to give additional help to superintendents of Sunday schools through the work of the Secretary of Sunday Schools. We are continuing the study of statistics with the view of finding desirable and undesirable trends in our Sunday-school work. It is hoped that through these studies we may be able to give valuable suggestions to our constituency for the improvement of our work with the children.

Young People's Bible Meetings

We are grateful to report a substantial increase in the returns of Young People's Bible Meeting reports. This is giving us a better over-all view of the function of our Young People's Bible Meetings in the church. The Commission has received an enlarged vision of possibilities that can be realized through this organization. It has plans under way by which we hope to provide more materials for Young People's Bible Meeting workers, which will stimulate a greater variety of programs and a deeper interest among the youth of the church in spiritual things.

Junior Bible Meetings

Through the years more and more attention has been given to the possibility of promoting junior Bible meetings throughout the church. Congregations here and there have found the administration of such meetings both interesting and profitable. The Commission has been studying the type of programs that would be most suitable for such meetings and sees the possibility of providing our constituency with suggestive materials for use within another year. The Commission envisions for the church a regular and separate meeting to include all children up to and including the intermediates; this meeting to be supervised by an adult committee selected by the congregation who shall be responsible for the programs and the conduct of the meetings. It is to be an expressional activity primarily, in which the children participate both in the rendition of program features suitable to their age and in the leadership of meetings where the junior can function satisfactorily. It is believed that these programs should vary in type, in subject matter, in procedure, and in leadership.

Summer Bible Schools

The Curriculum Committee has continued its work in supervising the revision of our summer Bible school manuals. It has been active in outlining courses with the view to having a complete revision printed and ready for use by another year. This will require prayerful work and a great deal of consecrated energy. While it is evident that the total summer Bible school enrollment has dropped, it is hoped that through better local leadership we may be able to regain what has been lost and continue to increase the usefulness of this teaching agency of the church.

Week-day Bible Schools

The Commission continues its interest in the week-day type of Bible instruction meetings. We recommend the use of materials prepared by a special committee of the Lancaster Conference. The Curriculum Committee is undertaking a restudy of the materials used in this field of teaching. It hopes to provide in printed form a satisfactory curriculum with manuals for teachers' use. The Commission continues to promote this field of endeavor through its Secretary of Week-day Bible Schools.

Christian Workers' Training

The enlarged program of Christian Workers' Training courses has met with general approval throughout the church. We are glad to report increasing interest in the promotion of Christian Workers' Training by the district conferences. The Commission is desirous of encouraging more congregations to promote the organization of Christian Workers' Training classes in their respective communities.

Missionary Education

The Secretary of Missionary Education serves both the Commission and the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities. His interests in the past have included the promotion of mission study courses, the quarter investments, and missionary savings boxes. His work has now been enlarged to include the responsibility of the preparation of spring and fall bulletins promoting these activities. He is also directed to assume responsibility for the promotion and encouragement of youths' missionary projects and any other related promotional work in the field of missionary education.

Young People's Activities

During the past year the Commission has combined the secretaryships of young people's institutes and young people's problems into one office, now known as Secretary of Young People's Activities. In addition to his responsibility for the study of young people's problems and for the promotion of young people's institutes, he is expected to give attention to literary societies. While the young people's institute attendance has been somewhat interrupted by war conditions, we are happy to observe that these meetings continue to bless the lives of many young people.

Home

The Secretary of Home Interests discovers an ever-enlarging field of service to the church. It is believed that this field of promotion well deserves more and more attention. During this past year some time has been devoted to the study of the need for sex literature. The publication of such material which has been a concern of the Publishing Committee of the Mennonite Publication Board has now been turned over to the Commission, which is seeking to provide for this need through a special study committee appointed for that purpose.

Boys' Activities

For some years the Commission has received repeated requests for help in the field of boys' activities. It has been giving attention to the study of this problem through a special committee assigned to that task. This committee under the approval of the Commission is now preparing material and is planning a booklet for use by those who are interested in the promotion of boys' work in their local congregations. It is hoped that we may be able to meet a growing need in this field of service.

Commission Handbook

The Commission Handbook continues to serve the Commission as its official organ. In this annual publication interested persons will find a description of the work done by the organization and additional suggestive materials which are released from year to year to aid in the promotion of the teaching work of the Church; such features as topics for consideration at conferences, books for church and Sunday-school libraries, and statistics of teaching work done in congregations appear from time to time.

Literature Production Fund

A brother of the church who is interested in the encouragement of the production of Mennonite literature of the highest type has donated a substantial amount which constitutes the initial contribution to what is now known as the Literature Production Fund. We see possibilities in this field of endeavor and are grateful for the interest men of the church have in making possible the writing and publication of materials written by capable Mennonite authors for use in our own constituency. The Commission holds itself in readiness to make use of additional funds of this kind and hopes to be a servant of the Church in the production of the kind of literature that will build a more intelligent faith and a deeper spiritual life.

Deepening the Spiritual Life

The major emphasis for 1944 is expressed in the slogan, "Deepening the Spiritual Life." It has become a deep concern of the Commission to help the Church in providing better teachers through the development of a deeper spiritual life. It is hoped that by this means the Church may be able to build up a more vital Christian testimony through its membership. We have sensed a spirit of revival within the Mennonite Church and wish to contribute our share to this movement through the repeated encouragement of such means as will deepen the spiritual life in and through our teaching agencies. To this end we solicit the prayers of the entire brotherhood and seek your counsel in this great work. Harrisonburg, Va.

Mennonite Publication Board

By O. N. Johns, Secretary

During the past year the Lord has brought many blessings to the Mennonite Church and its constituency through its Publication Board. These blessings have gone out beyond the constituency of our church and, we hope, have affected the uttermost parts of the earth.

The Board has again endeavored to serve the church in the spreading of the Good News through the printed page. By the blessings of God and the good management of those in charge of the House and branch bookstores, we have enjoyed another prosperous year of service.

Probably the most important work of the Board during the last year was the securing of a new editor for the "Gospel Herald." Bro. Daniel Kauffman, who retired from the editorship of the "Gospel Herald," had been its editor from the beginning, and he gave faithful and very efficient service in this capacity for many years. Since the "Gospel Herald" is the official publication of the church, it was no small task to secure a successor for its editor. The Executive Committee of the Board, after receiving a letter from Bro. Kauffman relative to his retirement, polled the members of the Board for their suggestions for a new editor. After considerable negotiation, prayer, and waiting, Bro. Paul Erb, who is at present a professor of English at Goshen College, was elected editor at a special meeting of the Publication Board at Goshen College, Goshen, Ind., Aug. 24, 1943. Because of his qualifications as a writer and his wide range of experience in church work and his teaching, he is well fitted for this great and most important task. This seemed to be the leading of the Lord. This Divine guidance is now more apparent in view of Bro. Kauffman's summons higher on the very day the first issue by the new editor appeared.

Bro. Erb's acceptance of this new position will not necessitate an immediate move from Goshen to Scottdale on his part. The manner and time of his transfer were left to the decision of Bro. Erb and the executives of the Publishing House and the College.

We realize that his leaving will be keenly felt by the College, and we appreciate the fine spirit of co-operation manifested and the consideration given by the officials of the College and the Board of Education in seeking first the interest of the cause in general rather than their own.

Bro. Kauffman served the publishing interests of the church long and well. He was with the work at Scottdale for nearly 39 years, from its beginning in 1905. A fitting memorial appears elsewhere in this publication.

Bro. George Smoker's going to Africa left a large vacancy in our Tract Department, and we are making contacts with an endeavor to secure a successor. We are thankful for the part-time service that Bro. Sanford Shetler has given in this field during the past year.

The Board is happy to be able to be a financial asset to the church rather than a liability. We aim to do business in a fair, competitive way and then give the returns back to the church in general.

We have made our annual donation of a few thousand dollars to the various boards and institutions of the church. Besides this, our free literature program for ministers, missions, etc., means a large donation to the church.

This year again we have been giving much help to the C.P.S. program of the church by way of printing, supplying the C.P.S. boys in camp with our periodicals and books at reduced rates or free of charge, etc. We are planning the same for the brethren in Detached Service.

Our commercial printing has been kept at a minimum. Our aim is to seek first the kingdom of God and its interests.

The circulation of most of the papers are continuing to enjoy a healthy increase in circulation. The "Gospel Herald" is past 15,000, the "Christian Monitor" is now past 8,000, having nearly doubled its circulation in the past 10 years. "The Youth's Christian Companion" is going into its twenty-fifth year with a circulation above 22,000.

There has been a request for a new publication (periodical); so we are getting the concensus of opinion of the constituency on this question. One thing that would make this almost impossible for the present is the limitation on the use of paper. We are trying to keep the present publications going. Otherwise our work during the year was about as usual.

Government limitations in the use of paper, labor shortage, and difficulties in securing Bibles and other supplies for the book department have necessitated some adjustments. But we are grateful that we have been able to meet most of the increasing demands of our constituency in spite of these handicaps.

We appreciate your co-operation and ask your continued support. Our prayer is that God may continue to bless the efforts put forth.

Eastern Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities

By Henry F. Garber, President

IN THE YEARBOOK we mark time by years. This year has brought its share of joy and sorrow and problems. The World War has again brought to us conditions we have never faced before. But with all the changes about us, God remains unchanged and His Word lives and abides forever.

During the year, Lancaster Conference authorized and appointed an Itinerant Evangelism Committee. This committee is active and alert and their support appears elsewhere in the YEARBOOK. Whenever any of their itinerant work seems to need permanent workers, it will be given into the hands of the Mission Board.

No new work was opened by the Board during the year. However, there were several extension Sunday schools opened by local congregations. One of them is at Hinkletown and another at Millbach. A little Sunday school was opened near Parkesburg by a consecrated brother and sister. A new summer Bible school was conducted in the Garfield schoolhouse by a group of consecrated young sisters. As a Board we want to encourage these spontaneous efforts by congregations and individuals to take the Word of God to neglected groups. It is this type of thing that augurs well for the church of tomorrow. When compassion for the souls of men and love for the Word of God drive men and women to action, this is evidence of spiritual life. The Board always stands ready to take up work where congregations find it impossible.

There have been few changes during the year in the body of workers. At Coatesville, Frank Stoltzfus and family have found it necessary to move out of the mission home for health reasons. Kenneth Smokers have been placed there to care for the work. Bro. Stoltzfus still continues as pastor. At Tampa, J. Paul Sauders' have been granted a year's leave of absence. In their absence George F. Brunks' from Washington, D.C., are caring for the work there. At this time a sister is needed for the work in our Washington suburban mission. Martha Mosemann one of our workers there has asked for a leave. The Jewish Evangelism Committee is still active. They have asked for a full-time married couple for this work. At this time there is still no such couple appointed for full-time work. Will you pray that God will clearly point the way in this difficult work? There is much interest in this work and funds are continually available.

At this writing plans are laid for our annual ingathering of new and used clothing for relief work. This material is distributed through the Mennonite Central Committee office in Akron, Pa. The brotherhood has always reponded liberally to these appeals and we believe they will do so again.

On the African field there is a body of earnest missionaries. At this time there are twenty adults on the field and fifteen missionaries' children. At this time all the missionaries are active although several of them cannot carry a full load. Because of the difficult travel conditions on the seas, furloughs have been held up for more than two years. But we do expect that missionaries will be returning in 1944. The home church feels the lack of fresh arrivals from the field.

During the year James Shank and wife were appointed new missionaries to Africa. Bro. Shank is in Civilian Public Service now, and their sailing will consequently be delayed. Some of the missionaries' children are of school age and plans are being laid for a school for them somewhere on the field. The Board is looking for a couple to send to the field to take charge of this school. Besides this another couple for the African work has been asked for and authorized. Neither is this couple in sight.

On the field the outstanding news is the work of revival in the church. It is a work about which the missionaries say little lest they might seem to boast. But nevertheless it is genuine and heart searching. It is a sifting time and missionaries say that it will likely leave a record of less African church members than before. Would that these revival fires might reach across the seas to the church at home.

In a financial way the activities of the Board have been well supported. Total receipts for the year will likely reach $200,000, the largest sum ever received by our Board. A large part of this went for Civilian Public Service and War Sufferers' Relief. But our regular accounts have been well supplied, too. We need to remember that only as these funds are translated into the saving of souls, the building up of the body of Christ, and the performing of deeds of mercy to the unfortunate do they have eternal values. Otherwise they may bring a curse instead of a blessing. May God make faithful stewards of His children.

Eastern Mennonite School

By Ernest G. Gehman

EVERY DAY is thanksgiving day at Eastern Mennonite School as we gratefully enjoy the long-needed, recently acquired additions in buildings and equipment. Through the goodness of God, the charity of the church, and the wise planning of the Board of Education, the School is today much better prepared, at least outwardly, to carry on its work of training the young people of the church for faithful service to God and to man. A brief review of the main items of this new equipment will here be presented:

In 1940-41 a frame annex, 30 by 42 feet for purposes of art and recitation was built to the Home Economics building.

In 1941-42 a two-story brick Industrial Arts building, 40 by 56 feet was constructed, equipped for courses in woodworking, ceramics, farm shop, agriculture, and general science.

In 1941-42 a four floor North Annex, 50 by 70 feet was added to the Administration Building. This greatly enhanced the School's library, science, dormitory, and infirmary facilities, and, by matching the South Annex, brought harmony out of a sixteen-year-old architectural discord.

In 1941-43 the church, 72 by 128 feet was built, its main auditorium seating 1500 and its basement assembly room seating 500 with a 200-person overflow into adjoining classrooms. This building has been described as one of the largest Mennonite churches in the world.

In 1943-44 improvements are being made in the Administration Building. The former chapel in the South Annex now accommodates in its west half a large study hall for day students and in its east half two large classrooms for typing and for business practice. The School's business office, long overcrowded, has been moved into the former Room A. The room vacated by the business department is now being turned into a much-needed first-floor reception room for visitors and salesmen.

Also at present the immediate surroundings of the new church building are being perfected. A handsome porch with brick pillars and arches is in process of construction, as are also walks and stone walls about the lawn, and the ground is being graded and prepared for grass and plantings. The very mild November and December weather is permitting this work to proceed without much hindrance.

Thus the present building program is nearing completion, but this year's large student enrollment (second only to that of 1941-42), with more dormitory students than ever before, brings strongly to our minds the fact that a new, separate dormitory building is becoming an urgent necessity. Also the X-hall, where our students get their physical exercise, is increasingly inadequate. Just when these and other needs can be met we do not know, but we feel confident that the Lord and the church will provide in the future as in the past.

Two of our faculty members, Bro. Hubert Pellman, head of the English Department, and Bro. Daniel Suter, assistant in chemistry and biology, are no longer with us because of the present emergency. Their teaching positions are being filled by Sisters Grace Wenger and Grace Lefever, respectively.

As to things of the spirit, we are glad to report numerous victories for the Lord among the students. Our fall revival meetings, conducted by Bro. J. Irvin Lehman, as well as subsequent efforts by members of the faculty, have resulted in repentance of sin and peace of heart to many. There are still those students whose unconverted or unconsecrated condition occasions continual concern, and for such we invite your intercessions that no young poeple may go out from the influence of this School spiritually unblessed.

When we of the faculty consider the grave weight of responsibility that is ours, and the many ways in which worldliness and liberalism, the twin foes of denominational schools, have attacked and weakened or even destroyed such schools in the past, we crave the sincere and continual prayers of the church, that we may be able under the blessing of God to conduct this School in safe paths for the feet of the young people of the Church, till He comes.

The First Year at Lancaster Mennonite School

By C. B. Stoner, Business Manager

AS THE FIRST YEAR of activity at the Lancaster Mennonite School fades into history, we become more conscious of the fact that God has been gracious and that many lives have been drawn closer to Him through the many blessings we have enjoyed. We again recall some of the major purposes for which Lancaster Mennonite School was brought into existence:

> "To indoctrinate young people in the Word of God and acquaint them with the teachings of the Mennonite Church; to provide training under Christian influence and environment for the development of Christian character; to foster a lasting interest in, and love for, the church, and to prepare young people for future usefulness; to guide the youth in social relationships and assist them to become law-abiding citizens."

Throughout the year many problems have had to be met; many adjustments had to be made and various principles had to be established and maintained. Some of these problems still remain, and standards have been set towards which we are yet striving, but as we look back over the past experiences, we acknowledge with gratefulness that God has abundantly blessed these activities and efforts and has guided in such a manner that we can say "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us."

Activities at the Lancaster Mennonite School have been quite varied. A few of the most outstanding have been the spiritual devotional periods through the daily prayer circle. Students gather together at the close of the day to spend some time in praise and worship to God and come to a new realization of greater fullness in Christ Jesus. The Tuesday morning devotional periods have also served to enrich the spiritual life of these young Christians as they find opportunity in self-expression of fellowship with God and give a living testimony of grace and salvation through Christ. A new joy was also experienced in seeing many of the students reconsecrate their lives more fully for service to Christ and the church as a result of prayer and evangelistic messages given during the school term. We praise God for these experiences and pray that those lives may remain true to their God and that others may yet find that joy and peace of mind and soul.

During the summer months other temporal activities were engaged in which were for the purpose of having better accommodations for the present school year. The enlargement of the dining room; construction of a large cold storage room; addition of two classrooms; and preparing a small cottage for additional dormitory space have been greatly appreciated and are filling a real need this year. Another interesting activity of the summer months was the canning program sponsored by the School. Jars were distributed throughout the various congregations to be filled with approximately 3,120 quarts of fruit and vegetables, most of which have been filled and returned to the School by the time of this writing. We are deeply grateful to the many persons who have contributed to this work in a material way, but not only are we thankful for the food preserved and the effort thus consumed, but we are also appreciative of the spirit of good-will, interest, and co-operation manifested by the many interested friends of the School. With the opening of school in September, we have also received donations of other foods such as dried corn, chicken, fish, other meats, honey, tomatoes, fresh fruits, vegetables, and also contributions in money. We sincerely thank those who have helped in this way.

With the opening of school for the second year, we are heartily encouraged with an increase of sixteen per cent in our enrollment over that of last year. Two new teachers have been added to our faculty: Bro. Mahlon Hess, as teacher of Bible and Supervisor of Boys' Dormitory; and Sister Myra Hess, as teacher of Social Studies. One additional cook, Sister Alice Neff, has been added to our staff of workers.

Due to an increased interest in Commercial Studies it was considered advisable to offer several courses in Business Education this year. As a result of the planning of courses in Bookkeeping, Typing, and Shorthand in the curriculum, the day of registration revealed an enrollment of 45 students for Typing; 43 students for Bookkeeping, and 15 students for Shorthand. The problem of securing typewriters was adequately met by use of the School's typewriters, several typewriters donated to the School by interested friends, and through the co-operation of parents who secured typewriters.

THE FIRST YEAR AT L.M.S.

Two new types of activities have been introduced for the first time this year: (1) the Spiritual Life Period and (2) Extracurricular Activities. The Spiritual Life Period is conducted once a week in the interest of giving to our young people a greater appreciation for Scriptural principles as maintained by the Mennonite Church. The Extracurricular Activities are of two types: the Religious Activity and the Secular Activity. These activity groups meet once each week alternately thus permitting each student to select one religious and one secular activity. The activities offered this year are: Religious—Christian Service Projects, Local Church History, Mennonite Authors and Writers, World Religions, Vocational Guidance, Sacred Poetry and Music. Secular: shop-work, Needlecraft, Agriculture, First Aid, Nature Study, Home Making. We appreciate the interest and enthusiasm that have accompanied the introduction of these activities.

The autumn months also brought an opportunity for the boys and girls to render a valuable service to the community in the form of helping farmers with the harvesting of their late crops. Innumerable calls were received from farmers to have boys to help to pick tomatoes and potatoes, cut corn, husk corn, and to take in celery. An average of approximately ten boys have volunteered for such work each evening between the hours from 4 to 7 o'clock. During the week of the farmers' greatest need for help to pick tomatoes about twenty-five boys and girls volunteered each evening.

In the months which lie ahead there are many responsibilities to be accepted, and the challenge to greater service for the Master comes to both teacher and student. We hope and trust that the Spirit of God may continue to lead and direct so that we may all become vessels fit for the Master's use.
